publication. A meeting was held with the Training Officers to discuss the implementation of, and the procedures necessary under the regulation. The group decided on the certain categories of trainees who would or would not be counted, how they would benefit, and requests for approval of training courses by OTR and the format of the OTR monthly report.

7. Number 17 of the OTR Bulletin was distributed on 1 August. A separate edition of the Bulletin is planned for the DD/P area on 1 September.
8. This Staff commented on the Europe Area War Plan which was prepared in the field, complete with several annexes. Previous comments to the SPA-DD/S have been made on the parts of the plan which had been submitted earlier. So far as training is concerned, the plan encompasses what this Staff believes to be the proper organization, location of the function, and the criteria necessary to plan the wartime training requirements.
